*Insider POSTCODE

4005

New Farm

Situated on the banks of the Brisbane River, this hip inner-city suburb feels anything but urban or chaotic with its relaxed village atmosphere

Pablo Café

A local favourite, this affordable café has a seasonal menu featuring local and organic produce. Ideal for a lazy brunch. 893 Brunswick St; pablonewfarm.com

DRINK

Vine Restaurant Bar

Wind down with a glass of fine Italian wine from this ambient bar's extensive drinks list. 158 Moray St; vinerestaurant.com.au

Bitter Suite

With seven taps and more than 50 bottled craft beers on offer, this is the place to grab a pint and enjoy a laid-back afternoon chugging session. 75 Welsby St; bittersuite.com.au

PLAY Merthyr Bowls Club

With a prime position on the Brisbane River, this club attracts an enthusiastic crowd and is great for an afternoon of barefoot bowls. 60 Oxlade Dr; merthyrbowlsclub.com.au MERTHYR BOWLS CLUB

Biller Suite

MERTHYR

8

CITYCYCLE

STATION

2 Topon St

Restaurant and Bar

and the second second

07 2014

Brisbane River

NEW FARM

PARK

5

RELAX New Farm Park

Throw a frisbee with the kids or find the perfect picnic spot among the rose gardens, with the city skyline in the distance.

1042 Brunswick St; newfarmpark.com.au

BROWSE Jan Power's

Farmers' Markets

Every second and fourth Saturday of the month, the Powerhouse Plaza comes to life with this boutique market, where vendors sell fresh produce and serve up tasty street-style food. Powerhouse Plaza; janpowersfarmersmarkets.com.au

Brisbane Powerhouse

Brisbane Powerhouse

Once supplying electricity for Brisbane's old tram network, this New Farm icon is now an entertainment hotspot with a rolling schedule of exhibitions, music, comedy and theatre performances. 119 Lamington St; brisbanepowerhouse.org

RIDE

Brisbane CityCycle

Grab a bike, ride through the heart of the suburb and continue along the riverfront cycle path from New Farm to Newstead. Sydney St Ferry Terminal; citycycle.com.au